Thanks John. I will be in Park County on Monday to meet/prepare witness for the hearing there, which starts T-Th. I will have email access in the evenings. As I said in my letter, I'm glad to meet with you on that trip, though I don't think it's necessary. Our accountant's counsel was not immediately sure of the extension timeline, but the amended subpoena gives a return date of Feb. 20. We cannot make that timeframe work.

Regards,
Nick

Nick, I will have to check my files at my office. I will get back to you Monday, which is otherwise a holiday.

John

I'm asking for two weeks from the 20th, which is in early March. Is that within the agreed extension? I'm in a hearing Monday – Thursday of next week and Bob is out of the county. We would greatly appreciate it.

Thanks
Nick

I already granted an extension to the accountants.

Dear John –

Do you have a quick few minutes for a phone call this afternoon? I need to know whether you will agree to extend the deadline on the subpoena to our accountant, as requested in my letter to you. There's a great deal of documents that I'm working with them on, many of which are not responsive. I need more time.

Also, I wanted to supplement my letter of yesterday. I have written confirmation that Mr. Aoun's law firm represented my client. I will try to get you a copy of that as soon as possible. Meanwhile, we object to your subpoena of our client's records from Mr. Aoun which are covered by the attorney client privilege.

Let me know if you have time to talk this afternoon, please.

Regards,
Nick
